Statement of North Lincolnshire Multi Faith Partnership

"The North Lincolnshire Multi Faith Partnership wishes in the light of the announced job losses at TATA to affirm the intrinsic value of each human being employed or not across our region. Whilst numbers may need to be used, we remember that these are individuals, with hopes and dreams, with families and dependants, who need the sense of purpose that a job gives, the security of a stable income, and the significance of knowing the part they play in the North Lincolnshire family.

As a partnership we would call upon those in the decision making process in local and national government, to value people over profit, remembering that people are not a commodity to be used, but the citizens of this country to be served, and that to invest money in their lives and futures is to invest in the life and future of the United Kingdom."

Cemetery Prayers

Sunday 15th November Ferry Road. Rosary at 3.00 pm followed by blessing of graves on request.

Canon's Ramblings Revisited!

Steelworks

I was away in Jerusalem when the much anticipated news of the loss of many jobs at the steelworks was announced. Prayers were offered for those whose lives will be affected not only by myself but by all our group which consisted of 20 people drawn from different Christian traditions from across the country.

On my return I picked up an e mail from Fr Joseph O'Hanlon, who was a curate at Holy Souls in 1980, assuring us all of his prayers at this time.

As a Parish we will seek to work together with other churches and faith communities in the area to support those families directly affected and to send out a positive message about our town to the wider community.

All Souls Day

All Souls Day, which falls on 2nd November, is the nearest that we have to a Parish Feast Day. Whereas other parishes have patron saints to celebrate, we have received a charge to remember and pray for those who have gone before us to God, especially those who have no one else to pray for them. There will be an additional Mass on Monday evening at 7.00 pm and all Masses in November will be offered for 'Holy Souls'.
