This Week

Organ Demonstration

This weekend we welcome Douglas Henn-Macrae who will be bringing an organ for us to listen to. The organ will be set up on Saturday afternoon and there will be a chance to hear it during the Saturday evening and Sunday morning Masses, and also after both those Masses there will be a further demonstration and an opportunity to ask questions. Unfortunately Douglas is not able to stay for Sunday evening Mass so if you would like to hear the demonstration organ please attend one of the other two Masses next weekend. Douglas has asked me to emphasise that the main purpose of his visit will be so that we can hear what the organ will sound like rather than to see how it will look.

Day of Prayer for Victims of Human Trafficking

The Catholic Church has taken a lead in campaigning for the rights of modern day slaves in our country and throughout the world. It continues to be a problem both in large cities and also in some agricultural areas including parts of Lincolnshire. 8th February is the Feastday of St Josephine Bakhita who was born in Sudan in 1869, was kidnapped into slavery at the age of 7, and eventually found freedom in Italy where she became a religious sister.

Canon's Ramblings

I am sure that all of us know the Our Father and Hail Mary by heart, but how many other prayers do we know? I suspect that many of the prayers that are familiar to those of an older generation are not equally familiar to those of a younger one. One such prayer might be the 'Hail, Holy Queen' which is often said at the conclusion of the rosary or sung in Latin (Salve Regina) at the end of evening or night prayer of the Church. It is a prayer that Pope Francis commends for our use during this Jubilee of Mercy, so for the benefit of those who do not (yet) know it these are the words:

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry,
Poor banished children of Eve;
To thee do we send up our sighs,
Mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
Turn then, most gracious advocate,
Thine eyes of mercy toward us;
And after this our exile,
Show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.
