As part of the Jubilee of Mercy Pope Francis has asked Bishops to 'celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation with their people'. Hence Bishop Patrick is visiting the various Deaneries of the Diocese during Lent in order to do this. He will be at St Bernadette's on Thursday 25th February at 7.00 pm to lead a Reconciliation Service and together with the priests of our Deanery will be available to hear confessions. Even if you will be making other arrangements to celebrate this sacrament during Lent then you are still encouraged to come along to this service to hear Bishop Patrick speak to us about God's mercy and to support those who will be celebrating the sacrament with your prayers.

Canon's Ramblings

One morning during the past week I received an e-mail via our parish web-site from someone asking information on how to become a Catholic. Later that day the same person came to the presbytery door and in a brief conversation I encouraged them in their interest and invited them to join us at Mass this weekend to experience our parish and church for themselves. If they have made it and are reading this then you are very welcome with us.

For the rest of us, this episode gives us three things to think about:

Firstly, there are people who are asking questions about life, faith, and God and wondering if the Catholic Church may have something significant to say to them.

Secondly, it is important that we continue have a presence on the internet and perhaps we could develop this further by making use of other modern means of communications too.

Thirdly, there maybe someone in church this weekend (or any weekend) who is attending Mass for the very first time. Maybe they are sat next to you. What are we all doing to help them feel welcome?
