This Week

This weekend we celebrate Mothering Sunday and it is an appropriate occasion to remember and pray for our mothers whether they are still with us or have gone before us to God.

Polish Lenten Retreat

Takes place this week on Monday and Tuesday.

CAFOD Lent Fast Day.

Thanks for the generous second collection last weekend which realised just over £820. The Gift Aid returns should net another £60. It would be nice if we could get to £1,000 during Lent, not least because it would then be doubled up by the Government and so worth £2,000 to CAFOD.

Hall Kitchen Refurbishment.

Is now complete and we have a dishwasher to help us wash up after events. There are some sections of worktops and a sink unit which are no longer required, and if anyone is interested in taking them away please speak with Elaine Hemingway after any of the weekend Masses. There is also some crockery which is surplus to requirements and can be taken for a small donation.

Retreat Day at St Bernadette's

Led by Father Dominic on Saturday 12th March between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm. Includes Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, spiritual conferences, and opportunity for confessions.

Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

'Confessors are called to embrace the repentant son who comes back home and to express the joy of having him back again. Let us never tire of also going out to the other son who stands outside, incapable of rejoicing, in order to explain to him that his judgement is severe and unjust and meaningless in the light of the father's boundless mercy' (Pope Francis)

First Confessions

The children on the First Holy Communion programme will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Wednesday 16th March at 6.00 pm.

CTS Publications

Available now 'Simple Prayer Book' and 'Our Lady Untier of Knots' (both £2) and leaflets on the Divine Mercy Devotion (no charge).

Red Mission Boxes

During 2015 Holy Souls parish raised £1,344 through the Red Mission Boxes. Thank you to all box holders and to David Lisle for co-ordinating them.

Washing of Feet

Earlier this year Pope Francis decreed that those taking part in this rite may be chosen from among all the members of the People of God. Please bear this in mind when we will be asking for volunteers to have a foot washed at the Mass of the Lord's Supper.

Pope Francis speaks of the Year of Mercy

This Extraordinary Year is itself a gift of grace. To pass through the Holy Door means to rediscover the infinite mercy of the Father who welcomes everyone and goes out personally to encounter each of them. It is he who seeks us! It is he who comes to encounter us! This will be a year in which we grow ever more convinced of God's mercy. How much wrong we do to God and his grace when we speak of sins being punished by his

Canon's Ramblings

Last Saturday we had a fascinating day at the Seafarers Centre in Immingham. We were able to learn something about the work of the Apostleship of the Sea and in particular of the Port Chaplain Fr Colum Kelly and the team of ship visitors who work with him. Fr Colum also gave us much to think about for Lent in the talks that he gave us. The day ended with Mass and we took a collection for the work of the Apostleship of the Sea which raised just short of £300. Fr Colum has written to express his thanks.

judgment before we speak of their being forgiven by his mercy! But that is the truth. We have to put mercy before judgment, and in any event God's judgment will always be in the light of his mercy. In passing through the Holy Door, then, may we feel that we ourselves are part of this mystery of love, of tenderness. Let us set aside all fear and dread, for these do not befit men and women who are loved. Instead, let us experience the joy of encountering that grace which transforms all things.
