This Week

Deacon Harry Tompkinson RIP

Most parishioners will have known Deacon Harry who has served in St Bernadette's exactly as long as Deacon Bernard has served in our parish. Harry also ministered at Lindsey Lodge Hospice and played a full part in any Deanery events and liturgies. His body will be received into St Bernadette's at 4.00 pm on Sunday and his Requiem Mass will be at 11.00 am on Monday. We pray for the repose of his soul and for God's blessing and comfort for his wife Freda and their children and grandchildren. There is a nice feature on Deacon Harry in this week's Scunthorpe Telegraph.

Creed

Now that the Lenten and Easter Seasons are over we return to using the Nicene Creed as our Profession of Faith.

Canon's Ramblings

I take part in many funerals in my life as a priest, but this week saw a first as I attended the funeral of Fr Dominic Rolls, a priest who was in my class at seminary and who was only one year older than me in age. It was a moving occasion at which I saw and spoke to people who I had probably not seen for over twenty years. I also saw how much Fr Dominic was loved and respected by the people of his last parish in Dorking, Surrey, where he had been Parish Priest from 2003 until last year. On returning home I learnt the news of the death of another member of our ordination class Fr Michael Koppel of the Diocese of Plymouth. Both Fr Dominic and Fr Michael suffered with cancer. Please pray for them both, and for all who will miss them at this time.
