Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees him. Show us your face and we will be saved.

This Week

Fr Daniel Palmer - this weekend we welcome Fr Daniel who will celebrate the Saturday 5.30 pm Mass and 9.30 am Mass on Sunday.

Gainsborough - congratulations to St Thomas's of Canterbury in Gainsborough who celebrate their 150th anniversary this weekend.

Florence Kelly RIP - please note that Florence's funeral will take place at St Bernadette's on Monday 25th July and not at Holy Souls as is given erroneously in the Scunthorpe Telegraph.

Year of Mercy Charitable Donation - Between April and June we enjoyed a series of social celebrations for the Queen's 90th birthday. Although these were not fund-raising events, we did manage to raise £140. In line with our Year of Mercy efforts, this has been donated to two charities that work with prisoners: Storybook Dads, which enables imprisoned parents to record bedtime stories on CD for their children at home and Haven, which provides books such as dictionaries for prisoners undertaking study. Thank you to everyone who helped to make these donations possible.

Plant Sale - there will be a sale of plants in the hall after all weekend Masses.

Thank You - the recent Macmillan Coffee Evening raised £312.60. Many thanks to everyone who helped, donated, or supported in any way.

Corporal Works of Mercy

One of the corporal works of mercy is to 'welcome the stranger'. Fr Eddy has been in contact with the local Council to ask if there any refugee families that have moved into our area and if there is anything we can do to assist them. In the meantime I am sure people will be aware of an increase nationally in the number of 'hate crimes' where people have been targeted because of their race or nationality. Fortunately things in and around Scunthorpe have, so far been, peaceful but it goes without saying that some people may be feeling a little bit vulnerable and a reassuring word of support and welcome will be much appreciated. Perhaps that could be a very simple but a very practical work of mercy that we could aim to do this week.

Supper night with Quiz

Thursday 28th July, Methodist Chapel Hall, South Street, Roxby. Tickets £6 on sale this weekend or telephone 07542 715929. You are welcome to bring your own soft drinks but please remember that this hall is part of a Methodist Chapel and no alcohol is allowed on the premises.

Apostleship of the Sea

A day for learning more about this wonderful mission of the Church featuring input from Father Colum Kelly. Takes place at the Seafarers Centre in Immingham on Saturday 30th July between 10.30 am and 3.00 pm.

Free admission but please bring contribution for a packed lunch. To book a place please contact steven.willows@apostleshipofthesea.org.uk or telephone 07793 488971.

Help

We are in need of a couple of volunteers to serve tea and coffee in the parish hall after morning Mass on Sunday 31st July. If you can help, please speak to Marie Dowse or Elaine Hemingway.

Baptism

A reminder that parents wishing to have a child (under 5 years old) baptised should expect to give three months notice of their intentions. This will enable sufficient time for the parish clergy to get to know them and to see that they are able to fulfil what they will promise during the baptism ceremony about bringing up their child(ren) in the Catholic faith. It will also ensure that the parents will be able to take part in a baptism preparation evening the next one of which will take place after the summer holidays probably during the month of September.

End the Trafficking

An awareness event about modern day slavery hosted by Bishop Patrick at St Norbert's, Spalding, on Wednesday 28th September between 6.00 pm and 8.30pm. To book in contact Louise Cooke at jpnnottingham@nrcdt.org.uk or on 07410 411048
