National Eucharistic Congress 2018

The Bishops' Conference of England and Wales has called a National Eucharistic Congress to take place in Liverpool from 7th to 9th September 2018. This will be a unique opportunity for the Church to gather and reflect on the centrality of the Eucharist in our Catholic faith. Although only a few people will be able to take part in the events in Liverpool, Bishop Patrick hopes that there will be a number of related events in the parishes, schools and chaplaincies of our Diocese.

SPANNED Mass

Bishop Patrick will be the principal celebrant at this Mass on Saturday 16th September, 2.00 pm, at St Peter's Church, Leicester Road, Hinckley. He will offer this Mass in memory of the life and faithful witness of both Fr Peter Coyle RIP and Fr Dennis Higgins RIP.

"Are you Ready?"

Bishop Patrick invites the young people of our Diocese to join him at Ratcliffe College on Saturday, 16 September from 7.00 pm to 9.30 pm, for a Sprit-filled evening of prayer, praise, good music, food and fun. Free entrance.

Canon's Ramblings

By now everyone will have had a couple of weeks to get used to the news that Holy Souls will have a new parish priest from September. I am grateful for the kind things that many people have said to me since I announced this news. Although moving parishes is part of life for a Diocesan priest, nevertheless a change of parish can be an anxious time.

As I look back on the six years I have spent at Holy Souls I do so with much to be thankful for, but also aware of my own shortcomings for which I seek God's forgiveness and yours.

As I look ahead to my new appointment at St Peter and Paul in Lincoln and in particular my new role as Vicar General I do so with a degree of trepidation, but confident that the Lord, who has called me into his service as a priest, will continue to guide and sustain me.

Meanwhile Fr Neil Peoples is very much looking forward to coming to Holy Souls and I am confident that he will fit in well and have a happy and fruitful ministry here.

Please keep us both in your prayers at this time, together with all the other priests who are preparing to take up new appointments.
