National Eucharistic Congress 2018

The Bishops' Conference of England and Wales has called a National Eucharistic Congress to take place in Liverpool from 7th to 9th September 2018. This will be a unique opportunity for the Church to gather and reflect on the centrality of the Eucharist in our Catholic faith. Bishop Patrick hopes that there will be a number of related events in the parishes, schools and chaplaincies of our Diocese. Fr Neil is part of the organising group for the Diocese; if you wish to know more please ask him.

Adoremus 2018 - Eucharistic Congress in Liverpool

This national event takes place from Friday 7th to Sunday 9th September in Liverpool. It will be a gathering of Catholics from all over England and Wales. Most of the events are ticket only and we only have a limited amount. What we know so far:

- ♦ Friday 7th September. A Theological symposium and workshops for better forming catechists - especially for those leading First Holy Communion courses. This day would also be good for RE teachers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Cost £40.
- ♦ Saturday 8th September. A six hour stage led program based in the 10,000 seat Echo Arena. This will include two keynote speakers (including Bishop Robert Barron - who did the Catholicism series), time of Adoration and various presentations regarding the Eucharist. Cost £40.
- ♦ Sunday 9th September. Pilgrimage Masses - some in the Cathedral and others to take place around the City of Liverpool, followed by a Blessed Sacrament Procession through the streets of Liverpool. Free - open to all.

As a parish we have been allocated 5 places for the Saturday Event, and can request tickets for the Friday. If you would be interested in going please sign the sheets at the back of the Church. If we have more people than our allocation we can request more tickets from the Diocese.

We have to notify the Bishops Conference of potential numbers as soon as possible so please sign up by next weekend 7th/8th October.
